February Meeting

Presentation: Brainstorming:
How to Activate Younger Voters

Monday, February 12 - 10 AM

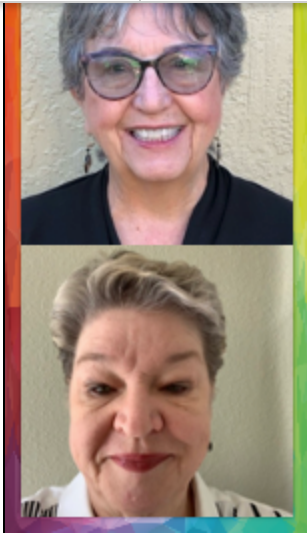

Fruitland Park Library
604 W Berckman Street
Fruitland Park

Put on your Thinking Caps and brainstorm ways to get younger Tri-County voters to the polls.

A 10-minute TedTalk video by Daniel Regan will provide ideas to start the discussion. Daniel explains why Millennials are far less likely to vote than other generations and then recounts how a group of young professionals in Tulsa, Oklahoma doubled the turnout of this demographic in the 2016 election.

Our special guest will be Myles McConico, from Kut Different, a local Ocala organization dedicated to exposing underserved youth to the world beyond their neighborhoods and schools. Myles will offer his perspective on how the ideas we generate would resonate with young, minority voters.

Want to make a difference? Come to our February meeting.

Do you Know How Many Leagues You Belong To?

The answer is at least 4. We bet you didn't know that - at least we didn't until we became Co-Presidents. Most of you know your dues pay for membership in the US League as well as the LWV of Florida, but did you know we have two organizations at the local level?

In Tri-County we have an advocacy organization, classified by the IRS as a 501(C)4, as well as an educational organization, classified as a 501(C)3.

SAVE THE DATE

Our annual meeting this year is on Thursday, March 14 at the Bistro at Grand Oaks from 11:30 - 1:30. This is an important meeting as we will elect our new officers and adopt the 2024-2025 Budget as well as our 2024-2025 Program.

Our speaker will be Janeane Reagan who will talk about the Effects of Social Media on our Decision-Making Process. Mrs. Reagan has a PHD in clinical psychology and a masters in experimental psychology. She taught Psychology for 8 years and had a 32-year career in private practice. Throughout her career she has been fascinated by brain science. She is particularly interested in how the brain changes in response to experience.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

All viable organizations depend on strong leadership. It is now time to recruit new Board members. If you are interested in learning more about how the League functions and are willing to make a small commitment in time and energy to help our League accomplish its mission, please call one of the members of our nominating committee: Ann Koziol or Char Griffin.

If Ann and Char do not receive enough volunteers, they may be calling you. Please consider saying "Yes." They can answer any questions about time commitment and duties. If you are elected, rest assured that the returning Board members are committed to helping. Finally, if you know of anyone you think Ann and Char should call, please let them know by phone or text.

NEWS FROM LWV FLORIDA

LWVFL Co-Presidents, Cecile Scoon and Debbie Chandler, have taken League lobbying efforts to a new level. In the past LWVFL lobbied regarding bills proposed by legislators. Bills are usually drafted by legislative staff. This year LWVFL was asked to draft a bill to address the delays returning citizens encounter when trying to determine their eligibility to vote.

U.S. CONSTITUTION COULD BE REWRITTEN

Legislation currently before the Florida House and Senate is calling for a U.S. Constitutional Convention. This second way to amend the constitution requires 34 states to call for the convention. Twenty-eight (28) states have already done this.

Florida would be the 29th. There are no rules on how delegates would be picked, how the influence of special interests would be limited, or how the American people would be represented in a convention.
