

Supervisor of Elections will discuss changing election laws at LWV event

Sumter County Supervisor of Elections Bill Keen will discuss changing election laws at an event hosted by the Tri-County League of Women Voters.

The event will be from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday, Nov. 27 at the Fruitland Park Library at 604 W. Berckman St. The event is open to members of the public.

Since 2024 is a presidential election year, there will be more races on the ballot than in off-year elections. Counties elect Supervisors of Elections, Sheriffs, Court Clerks, Property Appraisers, Tax Collectors as well as members of their Water Authority and Hospital Boards. Florida Primary Elections in 2024 may be your only opportunity to vote for a local candidate, if they are running unopposed.
