

Hometown Hospitality

Charlene Griffin prepared her slideshow presentation for the League of Women Voters of The Villages/Tri-County prior to the start of the Civil Discourse Club's meeting at Savannah Recreation. She planned to talk about the three state amendments that will be on the ballot in November, giving the members the information they need to make a decision. "I enjoy seeing the lights go on" above their heads, Griffin said. Griffin also became a member of the Discourse Club after moving to The Villages in 2011. "It's one of the few places where people of different political persuasions will come and talk to each other," said Griffin, of the Village of Tamarind Grove. "You listen and speak respectfully."

