The meeting is scheduled for 2 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 12, in the Palm Villa Room at the Fruitland Park Library, located at 604 W. Berckman St.

Bilardello will provide an overview of the responsibilities of the County Commission and explain how it interacts with other county offices, cities, special districts, and the Florida state government. He will also discuss how decisions involving multiple levels of government are made, specifically highlighting the process behind local projects like the widening of Morse Boulevard.

The public is welcome to attend. Seating is limited; doors open to members at 1:30 p.m. and to the public at 1:45 p.m.
