

Learn about six amendments to Florida Constitution on November ballot

Six amendments to the Florida Constitution are on the November ballot. Many voters are looking for unbiased information on what a “yes” and “no” vote mean.

The League of Women Voters of Florida supplies that information in their voter guide now available on Vote411.org. In addition to an explanation of each amendment, the voter guide lists organizations supporting and opposing as well as those organizations’ arguments for the positions they are taking.

Even more information on the amendments is available at presentations made by the League of Women Voters of The Villages/Tri-County. Any organization may book a presentation of Decisions 2014 by visiting the Book a Speaker page on the League’s website: lwwtrifl.org. The presentations are offered as a public service, although donations are always appreciated.

In addition, current bookings, which are open to the public, can be found on the League’s website, lwwtrifl.org.
