Write-in Loophole Explained

Write-in candidates must file paperwork to qualify but do not have to pay fees or collect names on petition.

The Solution

ARTICLE VI: SUFFRAGE AND ELECTIONS, Section 5. Primary, general, and special elections.

2. If all candidates for an office have the same party affiliation and the winner will have either no opposition in the general election, or opposition only from one or more write-in candidates, then all qualified electors, regardless of party affiliation, may vote in the primary elections for that office.
